Cold Weather Causes Much Suffering Among Poor-"Bread Line"

Is Long.

Washington is done with snow, at least for a while, but in its place has come the slush, and if the predictions of the wheather bureau today are fulfilled, gumshoes and stilts will be more in order than snowshoes for the next few days. The temperature last night hovered between 20 and 25 degrees. It is predicted Now Muster 167 Coalition Members the mercury will not climb higher tonight, despite the promise of the warm sunshine of the day.

New England is now taking its turn with the big storm that covered Wash- RESULT OF VOTING HELD BACK ington with its mantle of snow and ice. Reports from that section indicate that and from Northfield and Burlington, Vt., comes the news that the thermometer has hit the 12-degree mark.

The lowest point recorded this morning was at Devil's Lake, N. D., where the mercury dropped to eighteen degrees be-great lake section, while the gulf and south Atlantic states are having cold weather. In Florida last night the temperature was at the freezing point and it is expected to remain there tonight, with a heavy fall of frost. Heavy snows were reported in western Maryland and western Virginia last night.

Snow in North Carolina.

Gutters Are Opened.

Every gutter and sidewalk in the central portion of the city was opened yesterday partment, according to reports which two Redmonites chosen. , reached the office in the District building today. Fifteen sidewalk plows are with having swept about 300 miles of sidewalks before being put away in the barn last night. However, the unimproved streets in the remoter sections of the city will not be treated to snow plows for some reason or other. With the snow lying a foot deep in some of the outlying sections, the residents will ave to forego the luxury of having the ity clean off the sidewalks for them. Special attention is being given crossings today. Although it was reported last night that every crossing in open, the men went to work early today to make them still cleaner. A large gang of men was put to work on the route of the von Steuben parade and the treets were made as dry and clean as The work of cleaning the snow away it is in the midst of a heavy snowstorm. Irish Party Feeling So High Facts

teresting of today's election news came from Cork city, where in the pollings of yesterday the independent-nationalists defeated the Redmondites in the bitterest fight of the campaign.

William O'Brien, leader of the independents, was returned with a slightly decreased majority of 638 over William Redmond, brother of the nationalist leader. Morris Healy, who was defeated last January by the nationalist candidate, A. Roche, who had a majority of 209, yesterday turned the tables on Roche, winning the seat with 526 votes to spare. The vote was: O'Brien, 5,384; Redmond,
